

2010 Nominees for the PCCA Board of Directors

Larry Binfet: Larry is a successful realtor, however, he also spent numerous years working in high ticket retail sales. He graduated from Romeo High School and was a life-long resident of Macomb County until two years ago when he relocated to the City of Rochester. Larry currently serves on the board of directors for the Washington Lions Club and was instrumental in coordinating PCCA's participation with the new Art & Orchard Festival. Larry is the proud father of 6 year old twin girls.

Quaid Saiffee: Quaid is currently the President of WIT Inc. He has over 16 years of professional experience in IT and Systems design and implementation. He holds a Master's degree in Industrial and Systems Engineering from Virginia Tech, and has been published in international Operations Research journals and holds a patent in data visualization. Quaid graduated from Leadership Rochester in 2002. He is an active participant in inter-faith community in the area and a member of Islamic Association of Greater Detroit, Rochester Hills, MI. Quaid can often be seen in spring/summer /fall biking with his wife and 3 kids on nearby trails or eating ice-cream at the downtown DQ.

Cindy Kozlowski: Cindy is a longtime resident of Rochester Hills and has worked as a successful realtor for the past 9 years. Prior to real estate sales, Cindy was a teacher/Pre-K director for Somerset School at their locations in Rochester and Troy. She is a member of INFORUM, the Women's Council of Realtors, Rochester, MI Chapter, and the University of Georgia Alumni Detroit Chapter, where she served as President in 2008-2009. Cindy was also featured in an episode of HGTV's "My House is Worth What?"

Drew Patrick: Drew currently serves as Vice President & CFO for Skidmore Studio, a marketing and creative services studio in Royal Oak. He is also owner of PATRICK CONSULTING which provides independent accounting, finance, and management consulting services. Drew serves on the Board of Directors and as Treasurer for the Foundation for Ashley's Dream, a non-profit scholarship fund. He is a Summa Cum Laude graduate of Albion College and a finisher in the 2008 Detroit Free Press Marathon. Drew grew up in Troy, but now resides in Birmingham.